The Shabbat Project 5779: Last Call to Reserve!

Next Shabbat, Parshat Vayeira (Oct. 26th) delight in a Shabbaton Dinner celebrating Jewish Pride, Strength & Perseverance!

Let's Keep-it-Together in a spirited worldwide wave of sacred Shabbat observance! Celebrate an uplifting Friday Night Shabbat Dinner where you'll enjoy delicious, traditional catered cuisine, our famous Flamingo frayndshaft and warmth, and thought-provoking vignettes about the unequaled energy of Shabbat Kodesh. Leibel Mangel, our fascinating and dynamic featured guest speaker - an IDF combat veteran and grandson of Auschwitz's youngest survivor, Rav Nissan Mangel - inspires you with "From Auschwitz to the IDF." The evening also features an entertaining children's program running concurrently with the featured presentation. Share, observe and celebrate this global Shabbat together! But you must RSVP by Monday, October 22!

About Leibel - At only 19, Leibel Mangel left his home and family in Cincinnati, Ohio to enlist in the Israel Defense Forces as a lone soldier. Leibel, who grew up as the son of Chabad Shluchim and a grandson of Auschwitz's youngest survivor, the famed scholar and translator Rav Nissan Mangel, felt driven to serve in the IDF to ensure "Never Again." He participated in many high profile anti-terror operations including the discovery of the tragic kidnapped bodies of Gil-Ad Shaer, Naftali Fraenkel and Eyal Yifrah in 2014. Leibel has used his story and experiences to extend his service by advocating for Israel in mainstream and social media and by speaking to communities around the world. Leibel is also the recipient of a 2017 Jewish People's Choice Award.

The Rosh Chodesh Society – Uniting Inspired Jewish Woman with Timeless Torah Traditions!

For centuries, Jewish values have guided and shaped the moral compass of Western society. This year's RCS Course explores and provides every woman with an in-depth understanding of the key Jewish values that have been so influential in shaping our civilization. The lessons focus on areas outside the domain of the synagogue and Jewish ritual. Explore what it means to live as a faithful Jew "all the rest of our life." How is a Jewish woman expected to interact with the secular world? What does it mean for her to live Jewishly? This 7-Part Series promises to shine a spotlight on the Torah view of our social and ethical responsibilities. It guides us in how to live larger than life by welcoming HaShem into every detail. Each lesson of this curriculum contains an practical, relevant, and highly powerful personal takeaway message. Join us each month for a meaningful topic that'll enable you to experience elevated living today!

The 19th of Kislev
ראש השנה לחסידות
FROM 7:30 pm

The 19th of Kislev is joyously observed by Chabad-Lubavitch Chassidim as the global spiritual birth date for the Chassidic movement; that empowers us to reach greater spiritual heights, just like on our own birthdays! A most opportune day to rededicate ourselves to Teachings and illuminated Pathways of Chassidus. It's traditionally celebrated with additional Torah study and soul-stirring Farbrengens that encourages spiritual improvement.
