Tu B'Shevat ~ Monday – January 21 | ט"ו בישובט ~ ראש השנה לאילנות

On the 15th of Shevat, underground roots stir in Israel, with almond blossoms bursting along the Judean Hills, emerging after Israeli winter hibernation. This annual botanical phenomenon is marked as the proverbial "New Year for Trees. Torah-true tradition ordains that we observe this unique day on the Jewish calendar not by planting trees, but rather by eating fruits, especially those mentioned in praise of the Holy Land: grapes, figs, pomegranates, olives & dates. We reflect on what we can learn from these "trees of the field" and their fruits.

A Clean Slate – Thankfully many on our Misheberach List have B"H recovered, but unfortunately some are no longer with us. The time has come to wipe the slate clean and start anew again. After this Shabbat, we'll erase and start the list all over again. Please be sure to submit online for friends or relatives needing blessings no later than this coming Thursday evening. Thank you for your cooperation!
